ORDER

BEFORE THE COURT is the trial in this matter, currently scheduled for June 1, 2021. For the reasons stated herein, the time to try this case is extended up to and including March 7, 2022.

In response to the COVID-19 pandemic, the Chief Judge of the District Court of the Virgin Islands entered a general order concerning operations of the Court on March 17, 2020. The Chief Judge has thus far extended the order twelve times, finding that the ends of justice require excluding March 18, 2020, through May 31, 2021, from the Speedy Trial count in all criminal matters.

To date, the COVID-19 virus has claimed more than 590,000 lives (27 of which have been in the U.S. Virgin Islands). Current testing indicates that the rate of contraction of the virus is slowing in recent weeks. Notwithstanding the decrease in the incidence of COVID-19 in the Virgin Islands over the past few weeks, the Court finds that a continuance of the trial date in this case would be in the best interest of justice. Additionally, there are several motions pending disposition by the Court.¹ As a multi-defendant case, this case also presents significant challenges for the Court to comply with social distancing guidelines during the jury trial. Practical considerations would require additional spacing for Defendants, counsel, and jurors—and the potential for additional jurors in the courtroom. As such, the Court finds that the ends of justice require extending the period within which Defendants may be tried under the Speedy Trial Act, for the protection and well-being of the Defendants, the jury, the prosecutors, the witnesses, the Court's personnel, and the general public at large.
